Family Reunions

Planning a trip to Disney World is a great way for the family to have some fun. There are also many people that plan their family reunions every year in Orlando. It can be a very exciting time to bring them both together. It's no secret that there's no better way to bring a family together than through a family reunion. A family reunion is a special time that allows family members to catch up on what's new and going on in their lives, to reminisce about the good old days, and to just spend some quality time and fun, together. And one of the most talked about and enjoyed times of a family reunion is the eating and the food. You can make it more memorable and special by celebrating the occasion with delicious food catered from Chef Eddie's Restaurant & Catering Services. Although it's nice for the family to bring in the food and have "Uncle Bob" fire up the grill, but why make him do all the cooking...let him enjoy the fun too by having Chef Eddie's Restaurant & Catering Services provide you a great catering menu.

This is down home, city NEIGHBORHOOD food. I'm from Orange County, California. Chef Eddie's is an incredibly refreshing culture shock for me. LOVE IT.
- Andrew R - Orlando, FL

This is definitely one of the top Soul Food Restaurants in Central Florida. The food is well seasoned, always fresh, good prices and huge portions. I always leave looking forward to come back.

Tiffany F - Windermere, FL

LOVE this spot! Good home cooked food. Nice portion size and great service. I found this place through a friend and vowed to come back.

Kim S - Orlando, FL

I cannot give this place enough praise. Chef Eddie is mostly behind the grill cooking up the food. This place definitely has a love for the food they cook. The price is right. Most places downtown are around $15 for a plate of chicken and waffles. Chef Eddies is about $7.95 for a plate. That is a steal!
